Please note that this list isn't only for reference. Our practice can verify any changes in participating plans. Also, please know that not all of our doctors participate with every plan mentioned above. We will do our best to schedule you with a participating doctor. However, we can't guarantee that if you're coming to see us for an emergent visit for a vision threatening issue. If you don't see your carrier on this list, you should contact your carrier to verify your benefits and their referral network.
